

Single stream mode bar & kitchen faucet

A modern, minimalist faucet with a long, flat spout and a vertical handle. The faucet is made of a dark, metallic material, possibly brushed steel or nickel. The spout is a long, thin, rectangular plate that extends horizontally. The handle is a vertical cylinder that meets the spout at a right angle. The base of the faucet is a circular, flared foot. The overall design is clean and contemporary.

RUBINETTERIE
treemme
instruments for water